

2010 Miss Teen Texas Pageant Judges

Joyce B. Anderson

Ms. Anderson is a native of Florida where as a youngster she learned to water ski and model at Cypress Gardens. While working at Cypress Gardens, she represented the Cypress Gardens Water Ski Team in the U.S. Nationals at Long Beach, CA, where she won the Jr. Girls Jumping competition. During her time at Cypress Gardens, she had the opportunity of meeting several Miss America's as they would come to be photographed and learn to water ski.

Joyce and her late husband, Tom, were very active with their family horse farm, "Quail Creek Arabians, Inc" while raising their children. Outside of her interest and work with the Arabian Horse Association's Florida Futurities, her experiences have included dog grooming, the travel industry, and working for a physician and as a Unit Clerk on the OB/GYN floor of Shands Hospital at the University of Florida.

Today, Joyce enjoys living among the Red Rocks of Sedona, Arizona.

Bogan Durr

Bogan earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Texas State University, San Marcos. With a double major in Political Science and English, she was on the Dean's List five consecutive semesters, three of which earning a 4.0 GPA and graduating Magna cum Laude in May 2008.

Bogan is President and Founder of the EarthFirst! Organization and served as Senator and Chairwoman of the Associated Student Government while attending Texas State University.

Since graduating from Texas State University, Bogan has worked in the catering industry, served as a Senate Messenger for the Senate of the State of Texas and is now Session Scheduler and Office Manager for Texas State Senator, Bob Deuell, M.D.

Jean Goodwin-Grisham

Jean Goodwin-Grisham has worked with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Arlington since 1993. Her main job function is guiding the organization in offering a diverse list of quality programs to over 5,400 youth at their five traditional branches and 12 licensed extension sites. She is responsible for training staff, working with volunteers, managing outcome measurements, data management, and creating numerous internal & external program reports. She has a BA in Organizational Psychology and Development and a certification in Early Childhood Education. Jean graduated with her BA degree Summa Cum Laude from American Intercontinental University.

In addition to her work with the B&GC in Arlington, TX, Ms. Goodwin-Grisham is also a National Training Associate for the Boys & Girls Clubs of America and has been training all over the United States since 1996. In 2005 she was selected by the Boys & Girls Clubs of America as the National Trainer of the Year. At the 2010 Boys & Girls Clubs of America's National Conference in New York City, Jean was recognized by the National Professional Association in front of about 2,000 of her peers and Club leaders with the title of "Professional of the Year" for the National organization.

Jean is active in her community participating in the Junior League of Arlington and sitting on various committees focused on improving youth services in Arlington. She has been involved with the Arlington School District's Safe and Drug Free Schools task force for many years.

Originally from Riverside, California, Jean currently resides in Arlington, TX with her husband of 18 years and their 2 year old son, Conner.

Jai Harrelson

“My accomplishments are blessings and I think my Heavenly Father for putting me in the right places at the right times,” remarks Jai (with an I) C. Harrelson, a marketing and advertising specialist whose expertise in public relations is used by a variety of clients across the United States. The 2003 recipient of the McDonald’s Corporation African America Achievement Award for Community in North Carolina, he is a true “Carolina blue tarheel” and obtained both an undergraduate degree in radio, television and film, and a Master’s in Business Administration degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

A sports enthusiast and athlete, Jai began an association with the International Olympic Movement in 1994. He served as a protocol specialist and special securities coordinator at the last two Olympic Games held on America soil and advised two Olympic Host Committees on public image issues. His security knowledge is also used at elite sporting events such as the US Track and Field Championships, the Michael Jordan Celebrity Golf Invitational and NBA All-Star Celebration.

In 1986, Jai began his association with the Miss America Organization, serving as the youngest local director in the Miss North Carolina Organization. He beat the odds when his inaugural pageant produced that year’s state title holder. He later served as the Judges Chairman for the Miss Maryland Pageant for eleven years and now serves as Judges Host for the Miss Oklahoma Pageant.

Jennifer Schubert Hedges

A former Miss New Mexico, Jennifer (Jenny) Hedges, is a graduate of Southern Methodist University with a degree in Dance and German. Jenny is Senior Account Executive for RMM Online with honors, Who’s Who in Advertising, Senior Sales Executive – Highest Honor awarded to sales professionals at CMP Media and named Sales Person of the Year 4 times.

Mrs. Hedges is owner of The Windsor Agency, an interior design firm founded in 1999. She is a Board Member for Kappa Kappa Gamma Alum Group and a featured designer for Tablesapes since 2002.

Married and the mom of two teenage sons, Jenny is a marathon runner having completed in nine marathons, including two Boston Marathons. She is also active with the SWAM Masters Swim team and a Sunday School teacher at Highland Park United Methodist Church, Dallas.

Dr. Wayne Peavy

Dr. Wayne Peavy, a native Texas, has lived in Fort Worth his whole life. He is a general and cosmetic dentist practicing in Fort Worth. He has also been an accomplished pianist performing with Dino Kartsonakis, Shields Collins Bray, the pianist for the Fort Worth Symphony and others. He was also the song director in the movie “Sordid Lives” with Olivia Newton John, Delta Burke, Bonnie Bedelia, Beau Bridges and Leslie Jordan. He also performed the same role in the TV sitcom services with Rue McClanahan,

Dot Stewart

Dot Stewart, a native of Memphis, Tennessee, is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, receiving her Bachelor of Science Degree in Microbiology. She retired in 2007 from the Pacific Northwest National Laboratory, in Richland, WA as a senior project manager and scientist working in the fields of environmental science at the Hanford Site. Dot received two patents for her research in environmental microbiology and was selected by her company as a co-recipient of the “Woman of Achievement” award for her professional, personal, and community accomplishments.

Dot has been active in the Miss America Organization for the past eighteen years. Since 1998 she has been the Executive Director of the Miss Tri-Cities Scholarship Program, which has been recognized for the past four years as the second highest provider of scholarships in Washington among the local programs awarding $25,000 in scholarships in 2009.

She has studied piano and clarinet and has a familiarity with ballet and jazz dance because of her involvement with her daughters who danced with the local Mid-Columbia Ballet Company. Dot continues to be an active member of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority for over 25 years and the 3-Rivers Guild which supports Seattle Children’s Hospital, and serves on the Kadlec Regional Medical Center Foundation Board.

She and her husband, Bob celebrated their 44th anniversary in June. They have been blessed with two talented daughters and two special granddaughters, who keep them young at heart.